

Josh Bindl

CEO

National CooperativeRx
Fitchburg, Wisconsin

Josh Bindl is the CEO of National CooperativeRx, a not-for-profit pharmacy benefits purchasing cooperative representing employer groups, unions, and coalitions that sponsor a health plan. Working with over 550,000 participant lives, the Cooperative has a consistent history of lowering plan spend and adding value for members through joint purchasing and strategic clinical oversight programs. In addition, Mr. Bindl is the president of the National Labor Alliance of Health Care Coalitions (NLA), an alliance of Taft-Hartley funds and labor management coalitions. Representing over six million covered lives, the NLA works to achieve the best price and value for labor. Prior to his arrival at National CooperativeRx, Mr. Bindl served as the director of programs and services for the Wisconsin Counties Association. There, he led the WCA Group Health Trust, a self-funded employee health benefits trust. During his tenure, the trust grew from 8,000 to 50,000 participants. Mr. Bindl received his undergraduate degree from UW-La Crosse and his master's degree from UW-Madison.
