

Daneen Boyce, GBA

Benefits Analyst
United Food and Commercial Workers (UFCW)
Local 1776 Keystone State
Plymouth Meeting, Pennsylvania

Ms. Boyce is the benefits analyst for United Food and Commercial Workers (UFCW) Local 1776 Keystone State. For ten years prior to working for the Local, she worked for Healthcare Strategies, Inc., which administers the health and welfare and retirement plans for the members. Concurrently with that job, Ms. Boyce worked at ACME Markets as a part-time clerk. She received her bachelor's degree in human resources management at the Fox School of Business through Temple University. Ms. Boyce currently serves as a member of the Trustees Committee with the International Foundation and has earned her Group Benefits Associate (GBA) designation through the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans and the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. She is currently pursuing the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist® (CEBS®) designation.