

Stephen Brennan

Managing Director,
Co-Head of Evergreen Portfolio Management
Hamilton Lane
Conshohocken, Pennsylvania

Steve is a managing director and co-head of evergreen portfolio management at Hamilton Lane. In this role, he helps lead the firm's growing global evergreen fund platform, which spans the full spectrum of the private markets. Steve is also a member of the firm's investment committee and evergreen portfolio committee. Previously, Steve held numerous leadership roles at Hamilton Lane, including head of Taft-Hartley services. Prior to joining Hamilton Lane in 2002, Steve was an associate at Goldman Sachs within GSAM and an analyst in custody services at BNY. Steve received an M.B.A. degree from Fordham University and a B.B.A. degree from Loyola University Maryland.