

Sally B. Corbin, J.D.

Senior Vice President, Director of Insurance Relations Segal
Lansing, Michigan

Sally B. Corbin is a senior vice president, director of insurance relations in Segal's insurance brokerage practice based in Lansing, Michigan. She has more than 25 years of experience in the insurance brokerage industry and is responsible for providing brokerage placement and administrative services for property and casualty programs in all markets. This includes major financial lines: fiduciary liability, cyber liability, fidelity bonds and union liability insurance. Prior to joining Segal, Corbin owned and operated Union Services Agency (USA), which was acquired by Segal. USA specialized in fiduciary liability insurance and ERISA fidelity bonds for multiemployer benefit plans, as well as other commercial insurance coverages for unions, apprenticeships and affiliated associations. Licensed in 36 states, USA was recognized as the premier specialty brokerage in Michigan, concentrating on fiduciary liability insurance and ERISA fidelity bonds for Michigan's construction industry unions, associations and multiemployer benefit plans. Corbin is a member of the Lansing Chapter of the National Association of Women in Construction as well as several insurance industry association and professional societies. Her expertise was also welcomed by the Michigan Building Trades unions and construction associations, where she assisted a ballot proposal committee to fight the repeal of Michigan's prevailing wage law. Corbin was also appointed by Governor Whitmer to serve on the Elevator Safety Board in Michigan. Corbin is a frequent speaker at the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans Annual Conference, various targeted conferences, the National Coordinating Committee for Multiemployer Plans (NCCMP), the Eastern Seaboard Apprenticeship Conference (ESAC) and the National Training Institute (NTI) annual conference. She received a B.A. degree in international relations and Spanish from Michigan State University, James Madison College, and a J.D. degree from Western Michigan University Cooley Law School.
