

Timothy K. Eicher

Principal
Slevin & Hart PC
Washington, D.C.

Tim Eicher has focused exclusively on employee benefits law since he began his career, and advises unions, multiemployer, and nonprofit clients on a wide range of compliance issues under ERISA, the Internal Revenue Code, and related laws. He is actively involved with the American Bar Association's Employee Benefits Committee and is a contributing author of the ABA Section of Labor and Employment Law's treatise, Employee Benefits Law, where he serves as union-co chair for the chapter on multiemployer withdrawal liability. He also serves as a continuing faculty member for the District of Columbia Bar Association's ERISA Basics educational program, which he helped design. Mr. Eicher received his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center and his undergraduate degree from Princeton University, where he majored in Classics.
