

Jackie Hammond

Executive Director, Apprenticeship Delivery Support Services
Ministry of Advanced Education, Government of Alberta
Edmonton, Alberta

Jackie Hammond is the Executive Director of Apprenticeship Delivery Support Services with Alberta's Ministry of Advanced Education. She leads Alberta's apprenticeship and skilled trades certification system supporting apprentices, employers and industry partners from registration through journey person certification.

With more than 30 years of public service, Jackie works closely with employers, unions and training providers to ensure apprenticeship programs meet workforce needs and support a skilled, job-ready trades workforce. She is a strong advocate for apprenticeship as a proven pathway to workforce development, economic growth and industry success.
