

Beth Holmes, M.S.

Vice President of Hint Connect
Hint Health
San Francisco, California

Beth Holmes is the head of Hint Connect at Hint Health. She has been working in health care for over 15 years, committed to improving the health care system through payment innovation. She earned her masters in health policy and management degree at the Harvard TH Chan School of Public Health in 2012. For several years after that, she worked at regional and national insurers leading teams that innovated in risk-based contracting and provider performance management and reporting. In 2019, she joined Hint Health with the mission to bring direct primary care (DPC) to more employers and large purchasers. Beth leads Hint Connect, a national network of over 600 independent DPC clinics that has brought innovative, person-centric primary care to thousands of people. Beth lives in the San Francisco Bay Area with her husband, two young daughters and beloved old dog. They love spending time outside, traveling, cooking, and being with friends and family.
