Ryan ALM

Midland Park, New Jersey

Russell D. Kamp is the CEO for Ryan ALM, where he and the team are focused on protecting and preserving DB pension plans through a cash flow matching strategy. Kamp has 43 years of experience in the retirement industry. Prior to joining Ryan ALM, he was the managing partner for Kamp Consulting Solutions (KCS), a full-retainer asset and liability consulting firm. Kamp is a passionate advocate for pension reform and legislative efforts in Washington, D.C., frequently writing (kampconsultingblog.com) and speaking on the subject. Prior to launching KCS, he was a senior vice president and director, asset management, for Two Sigma Investments, where he helped launch a long-only business. Before joining Two Sigma, Kamp was CEO of Invesco Quantitative Strategies Group (IQS). IQS was a quantitatively oriented equity, alternative and global macro investment group that managed more than $30 billion for institutional clients. He began his career as an analyst for Janney Montgomery Scott's Investment Management Control division, an asset consulting firm that was later acquired by Evaluation Associates, Inc., where he became a senior vice president, senior consultant and partner, serving the defined benefit community.
