

Jison Kim

Director, Integrated & Global Solutions Team (Global M&A)
WTW
Chicago, Illinois

Jison Kim is a director in the Integrated & Global Solutions Team (Global M&A) at WTW, based in Chicago, Illinois. Jison has 20 years of experience in employee benefits consulting in Asia and the U.S. Jison focuses on advising on a wide variety of HR areas such as transaction due diligence, HR PMO, integrations, and divestitures, as well as global benefit plan design, financial reporting of retirement plans, and oversight of HR programs globally. Jison also manages global actuarial valuations for multinational companies as well as advisers on managing global benefits. She advises employers to set up new benefits programs and provides advice on benefit benchmarking. Prior to transferring to Chicago in 2017, Jison focused on assisting employers in Korea on pension plan designs, financial analysis, and pension accounting valuations as well as health benefits. She conducted many employee communication sessions in pension and benefits change. She also worked on HR governance frame as well as presented M&A HR readiness classes for Korean multinational companies. Jison received her bachelor of arts degree (summa cum laude) in actuarial science from Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio.