Associate
Scott+Scott
New York, New York

Emilie B. Kokmanian is an associate based in Scott+Scott's New York office, where she specializes in Canadian and U.S. securities litigation. Kokmanian currently spearheads the firm's efforts in Canada. Prior to joining Scott+Scott, Kokmanian litigated securities cases in Québec. She worked on several high-profile cases, including the class action against the Stars Group Inc. and BlackRock's opt-out claim against Bausch Health Companies Inc., both of which resulted in landmark decisions from Québec courts. Kokmanian was also involved in the class action against the Laurentian Bank of Canada and Volkswagen Aktiengesellschaft. Kokmanian has lectured at several conferences. Her publications include "Investigations in Securities Litigation in the U.S.: A Deep Dive Into the Role and Impact of Confidential Witnesses" and "The Realities of 'Reliance': Understanding Its Role in U.S. and Canadian Securities Class Actions."
