

Doug Manor

Managing Director
Neuberger Berman
Dallas, Texas

Doug Manor is a managing director of Neuberger Berman (NB). He is a member of the private equity investment team and is focused on primary investments and co-investments in North America. Prior to joining NB in 2006, Manor was in the Lehman Brothers investment banking division in New York, where he focused on M&A advisory as well as public and private financings in the financial institutions group. He sits on multiple NB private markets valuation committees and serves on a number of limited partner advisory boards on behalf of NB private markets. Manor earned an M.B.A. degree as a Kozmetsky Award winner (highest honors) from the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas at Austin and a B.B.A. degree in finance with special distinction from the University of Oklahoma.