

John Marco, M.B.A.

Senior Vice President/Senior Consultant
Segal Marco Advisors
Golden, Colorado

John Marco is a senior vice president/senior consultant at Segal Marco Advisors, where he leads the Western U.S. team. With two decades of experience in the investment consulting field, John has consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership and strategic vision. John has developed a deep expertise in working with large, sophisticated Taft-Hartley and public fund clients across the U.S. He is recognized as an innovative thought leader and trusted expert who can communicate complex investment strategies in an understandable way. His innovative approach and subject matter expertise have been instrumental in delivering outstanding results for Segal Marco Advisors' clients. John began his career in investment consulting in 2005 as an investment manager analyst at Marco Consulting Group. Prior to that, he worked with investment management firms of varying disciplines, including fixed income, equities, and alternative investments. John received his M.B.A. degree from DePaul University and B.S. degree in economics from the University of Colorado.