

Justin Patten

Assistant Vice President, Underwriting
Ullico Casualty Group, LLC
Silver Spring, Maryland

Justin Patten, as assistant vice president, underwriting for Ullico Casualty Group, manages all lines of property and casualty insurance business, both professional liability and commercial lines, for the managing general agency. In his role, he supervises a team of underwriters, helps craft policy language, and oversees implementations of system modifications. Mr. Patten leads his department by focusing on customer service standards and coverage expertise. Mr. Patten joined Ullico in 2011. Previously, he served as a specialist in the student financial services department for Strayer University. Mr. Patten graduated from University of Maryland College Park with a bachelor of arts in economics. He lives in Maryland with his wife and three small children.