Partner
Cary Kane PLLC
New York, New York

Owen M. Rumelt is a partner with Cary Kane PLLC in New York and has practiced ERISA/employee benefits law for more than 35 years. During his career, he has served as sole counsel or co-counsel to numerous Taft-Hartley multiemployer pension, welfare, annuity and 401(k) funds. He also served for a number of years as the fund manager of a group of multiemployer pension and welfare plans and currently serves as fund manager for one of his firm's health fund clients. In addition to advising trustees on fiduciary issues, Rumelt litigates on behalf of funds seeking contributions and withdrawal liability. He has also represented individual plaintiffs seeking to ensure that they receive the benefits promised to them. Rumelt served as an expert witness on behalf of fund trustees and their counsel in litigation relating to whether fund counsel was a fiduciary for the purposes of ERISA. He has been an instructor in the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans' Certified Employee Benefit Specialist® (CEBS®) program and a lecturer at conferences sponsored by the International Foundation, the American Bar Association, the New York Bar Association and the National Employment Lawyers Association. After receiving his B.S. degree with honors in applied mathematics and statistics from Stony Brook University, Rumelt received his law degree from the National Law Center at George Washington University. He is "AV" rated by Martindale-Hubbell and is listed in New York Super Lawyers, Metro Edition.
