

Jesse C. Sargent

Principal
Calibre CPA Group
Bethesda, Maryland

Jesse C. Sargent is a principal in the audit and accounting department of Calibre CPA Group. He has been in public accounting since 2010. Jesse has significant public accounting experience in the specialized field of tax-exempt organizations, including nonprofits, charitable entities, trade and professional associations, labor unions, employee benefit plans, and others. He is responsible for all aspects of client service and engagement management, including engagement budgeting, supervision of staff personnel, preparation of financial statements, tax filings, and informational returns including Forms 990, 990-T, LM-2, LM-30, 5500, and others. He has performed a number of audits in accordance with single audit requirements for organizations receiving federal awards and has a working knowledge of government grant administrative requirements and cost principles. In addition to his client responsibilities, Jesse frequently assists with on-boarding of new employees/interns and facilitates continuing training and education programs for staff auditors. He is also a member of the firm's audit and accounting committee and has been instrumental in development of Calibre's diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) initiatives.