

Jeffrey Sung, CFA

Partner
Method Advisors, LLC
Boston, Massachusetts

Mr. Sung is a partner at Method Advisors, LLC. In addition to his investment priorities, he is involved with strategic development, fund-raising and the cultivation of underlying partnership relationships. Mr. Sung has 20 years of investment experience, including work valuing publicly and privately held companies, evaluating traditional and alternative investment managers and advising institutional clients. He has worked in all aspects of investment management, including strategic asset allocation, manager selection and due diligence on traditional and alternative asset classes. Mr. Sung holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation. He has spoken at the International Foundation Annual Conference and Investments Institute and the Private Equity World Conference in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. Mr. Sung received an M.B.A. degree from the Darden Graduate School of Business at the University of Virginia and his B.A. degree from Cornell University.