

Brian Sweigman

Lawyer
Goodmans, LLP
Toronto, Ontario

Brian Sweigman is a partner in a business law group at Goodmans. His practice focuses on all areas of pensions and benefits. Brian advises plan sponsors and administrators on pension and benefit plan governance, administration, design and all other regulatory matters. He also advises on pension and benefit issues arising in corporate transactions, including acquisitions, divestitures, mergers and corporate reorganizations. Before joining Goodmans, Brian was at a global consulting firm, advising clients on pension law within the corporate sector. He is a regular course presenter for the Pension Plan Administration Certificate (PPAC) program at Humber College. Brian regularly teaches the Advanced Trust Management Standards™ (ATMS™) certificate for the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans. He is a member of the defined contribution pension plans advisory committee at the Financial Services Regulatory Authority of Ontario (FSRA). He has also written articles for pension and benefits publications, including the IPEBLA Journal, ACPM Observer and Benefits Canada.
