

Natascha B.E. Willans

Partner and Associate Portfolio Manager
ABS Global Investments
Stamford, Connecticut

Natascha B.E. Willans is a partner and associate portfolio manager at ABS. She is responsible for sourcing and monitoring emerging markets equity strategies. Mrs. Willans has been active following and allocating resources to emerging markets managers for over 16 years. Currently, ABS manages over $8 billion, mostly on behalf of pension funds, endowments and foundations. Prior to joining ABS in November 2013, she was an executive director in Goldman Sachs' global portfolio solutions group, participating in the oversight of multi-asset class investment portfolios and manager research and selection. She holds a B.S. degree in finance, marketing, and Italian language studies from Georgetown University.